In Memoriam

MARYLOU JADWIN - ANTHONY

From YOU CAN'T GO HOME AGAIN
Something has spoken in the night . . .
And told me I shall die, I know not where.
Saying:
"To lose the earth you know, for greater knowing;
To lose the life you have for greater life;
To leave the friends you loved, for greater loving;
To find a land more kind than home, more large
than earth —
Whereon the pillars of this earth are founded,
Toward which the conscience of the world is tending —
A wind is rising, and the rivers flow."

A large graphic of a pyramid composed of the word 'SENIORS' repeated many times, set against a dark background with stars and a bright light source on the left. The word 'SENIORS' is written in a white, serif font, and the pyramid is formed by multiple rows of the word, with the number of words per row increasing from top to bottom. The background is black with white stars of varying sizes, and a bright, multi-pointed starburst is visible on the left side.

CLASS WILLS

- I, Richard Anderson, leave my teachers with the horror of knowing that my little brother is not far behind.
- I, Scott Antoniello, leave my dirty gym clothes to Mrs. Carlson.
- I, Gena Becker, leave Mr. Card's air brush to anyone who can use it.
- I, Jeff Bird, leave my dreams about the senior class girls behind - maybe!
- I, Chrissy Boyle, leave to Jenny Slosson a Muzzle.
- I, William Brooks, leave my sweaty gym clothes to the gym staff.
- I, Sandi Bunten, leave Ms. Sullivan with all the little rascals.
- I, Jeff Croft, leave my notebook to anyone who can understand it.
- I, Tom Caswell, leave my bong to anyone who can pack it.
- I, Francine Cirinna, leave chasing after Linda and Lisa, also looking forward to Ed in life.
- I, Jerry Claveau, leave finally.
- I, Fred Dalton, leave my parking space #71 to Cheryl Dyer for 1 year.
- I, Natalie DiGenova, leave the cold and damp classrooms with noisy heaters to the freshmen.
- I, Gary Faia, leave cooking to cooks.
- I, Lisa Frietas, leave my pin curls for Ms. Castro to do.
- I, Tom Gardner, leave school to anyone who can figure out what is going on.
- I, Melissa Graves, leave my notebook to anyone who can organize it.
- I, John Bray, leave the school.
- I, Donna Hagen, leave to Jenny Slosson my voice box.
- I, Jimmie Harlow, leave school to anyone who wants it.
- I, Gary Hayward, leave all my empty bottles to whoever wants to return them.
- I, Valerie Heavey, leave this school to anyone who can cope with it.
- I, Lewis Holland, leave school to those who can hack it.
- I, Maryellen King, leave 3 great years of wandering the halls with Chrissy and also Mr. Murphy to anyone who can hack him. And T.C.'s car for emergencies. Thanks T.C..
- I, Ronald Leblanc, leave my ripped gym shirt to anyone who can sew in shop.
- I, Linda Maclean, leave with L.S. laughing at nothing, F.C. with a bright smile and best of all to raise the little one and marry Dana in " 86 ".

GRADUATION

-TO THE CLASS OF 85-

Our friendship means the world to me,
And if anyone looks, it's clear to see,
So open your eyes and look around;
'Cause I know that closeness is what we've found.

We've shared the times, both good and bad,
We've been through the feelings, both happy and sad,
We've always come out, together as one;
Not seeing the rain, only the sun.

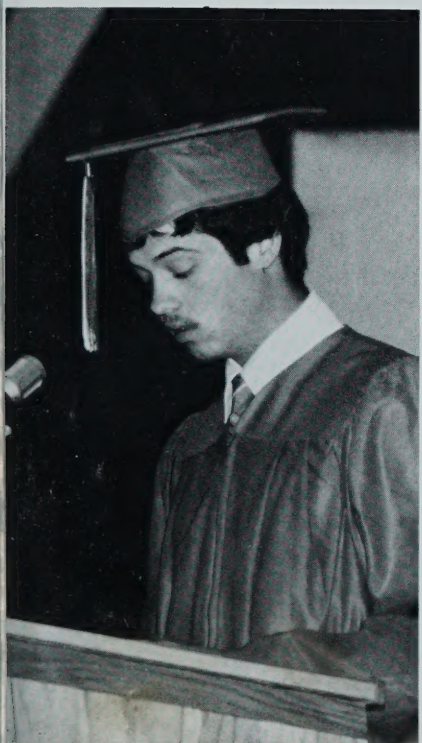

We talked of our hopes and lived with our dreams,
It was oh so long ago, but like yesterday it seems,
I'll keep these thoughts close in my heart;
Because now is the time for us to part.

We'll say our good-byes' and relive the years,
Then slowly walk away, wiping the tears,
Looking toward the future, yet remembering the past;
Hold on to your memories, 'cause memories will always last.
